

BUY 10,000 ACRES FOR LARGE FARM

L. Starks Company Close Big Deal With The Menasha
Woodware Co.

The L. Starks company has purchased of the Menasha Woodware company a tract of 10,000 acres of cut over lands located near the old townsite of Pennington within twelve miles of Rhinelander. The deal is one of the largest ever closed in this county. A large crew of men and teams will start work immediately upon the clearing of the land with the object of preparing nearly 500 acres for cultivation before snow flies next fall. The Starks company will improve and cultivate about 2000 acres of the tract and the remainder, 8000 acres, will be disposed of to settlers who will take up their permanent homes there. The plan is to develop that section so that within a few years it will become dotted with fine farms.

The land reserved by the Starks company will be planted with potatoes the soil being especially adapted to the growing of the tuber.

The work of clearing the land will be superintended by John Hess, one of the pioneer farmers of the county and who had charge of the Pine Lake farm clearing operations.

The deal between the Stark company and the Menasha Woodware company was made through B. L. Horr of this city.

DEMOCRATS NAME COUNTY TICKET

Candidates For Nomination Are Selected Here Last Friday Night

The Democratic meeting at the court house Friday night resulted in the placing of a full county ticket in nomination with the exception of surveyor and an effort will be made to find some one who will take that also. Following is the ticket:

Sheriff—
James Murphy of Monico.
County Clerk—
S. H. Ashton.
Register of Deeds—
T. M. Bolger of Minocqua.
Alfred Carlson of Rhinelander.
Treasurer—
J. J. Verage.
Clerk of the Court—
W. J. Neu of Three Lakes.
District Attorney—
H. T. Ames of Minocqua.
Coroner—
Henry Morrill.

The plan of the County Committee is to take charge of the nomination papers and have them circulated in the different districts, thus saving individual candidates a lot of time and expense. The nominations made here do not prevent individuals from entering the list also, independently, but the object in making nominations as has been done here is to enlist the support of all Democrats to support the entire ticket.

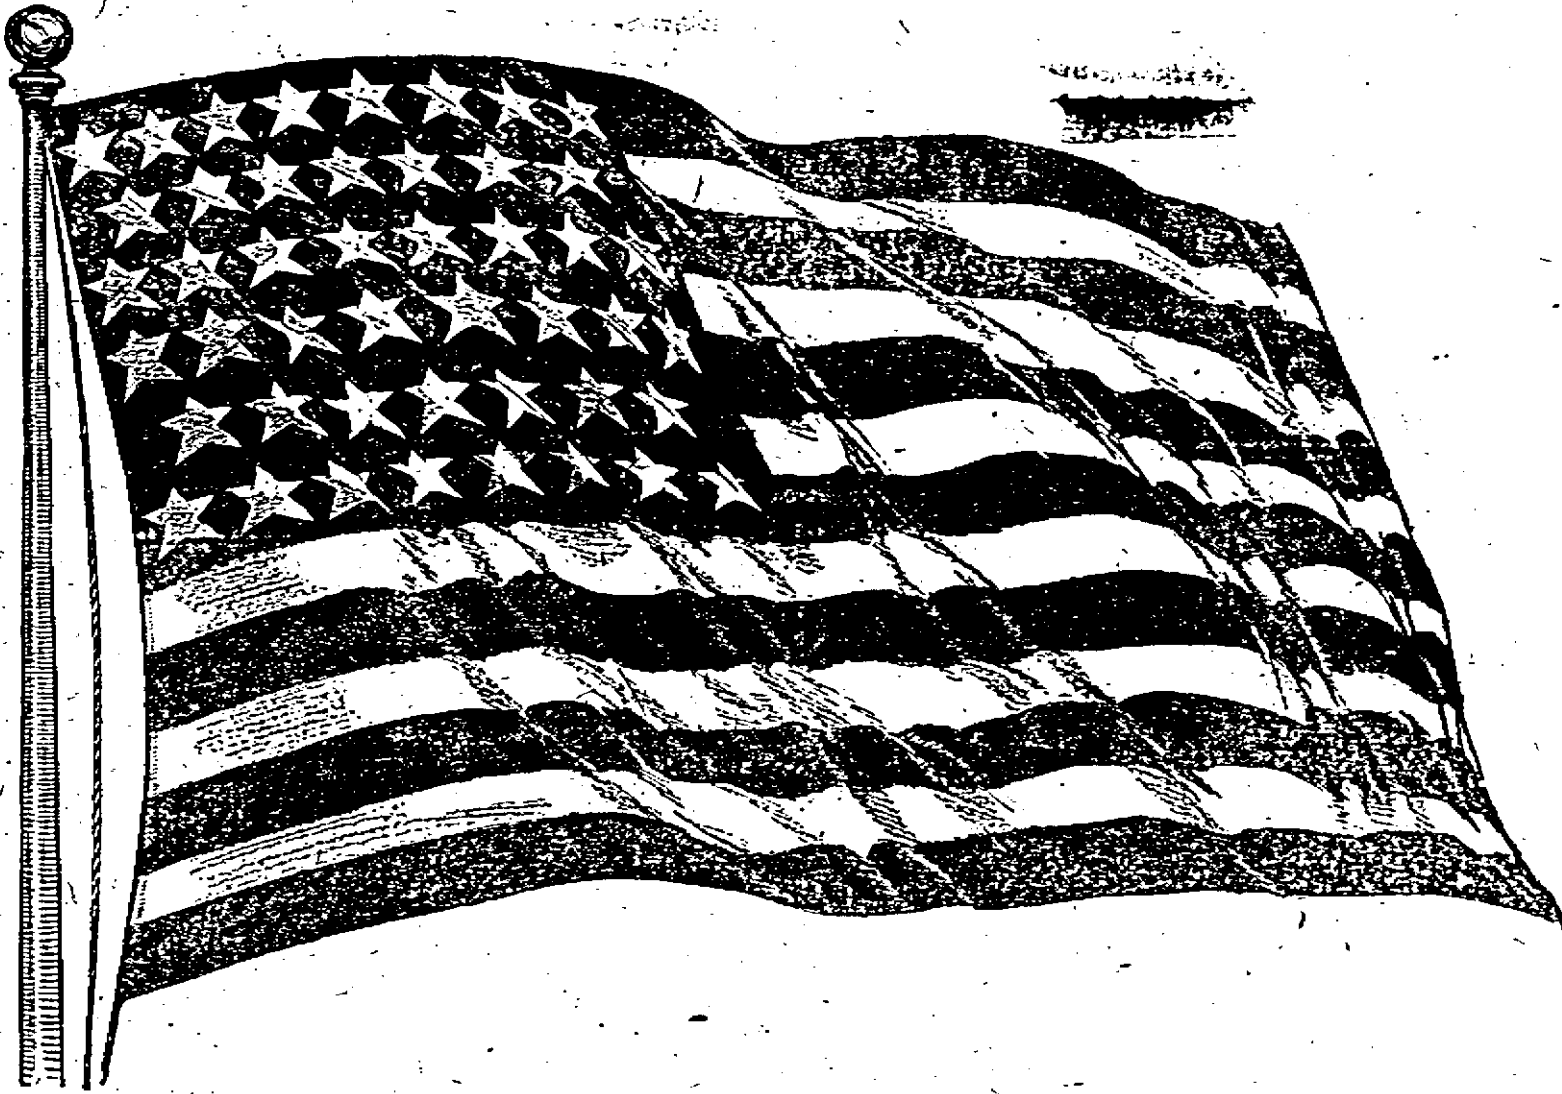

Three delegates Messrs. Crosby, Taylor and Walker were elected to the State Convention at Milwaukee, July 11, and as alternates, Messrs. Henry Miner, Matt Stapleton and Charles Chaffee. All of the alternates expect to attend the meeting.

The Democrats see bright prospects for success this year and it will be their aim to also nominate a candidate for assembly from this county.

DOES IT KILL FLIES?

Teamsters of the city claim that their horses are not bothered by flies when on that portion of Brown street which was recently treated with oil. It is said that the substance has a tendency to kill insects of all kinds. This may be true but the New North is not in a position to state authoritatively on the subject.

OUR NATION'S BIRTHDAY.

THE BANNER THAT MADE US FREE.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HOLD COVENTION

Delegates From County Lodges and State Officers Meet
In Rhinelander

The Royal Neighbors of Oneida Camp 1728 held a county convention in their hall on Stevens street last Tuesday afternoon and evening. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clara Hoyt of Antigo, district deputy, assisted by Mrs. Lena Parks, supervising deputy of Menasha.

The following officers were elected and installed:

Mrs. Emily Shelp, Rhinelander, President.
Mrs. Geo. Counter, Woodruff, Vice-President.
Mrs. Baldwin, Monico, Secretary and Treasurer.
Mrs. D. Jenkinson, Minocqua, Manager.
Mrs. Rendant, Cassian, Manager.
Miss Lena Louck, Three Lakes, Manager.

There were several questions asked and answered by the state officers which were very instructive. Oneida Camp put on the initiation work and a class of 18 was ushered into the mysteries of order. Oneida Camp has one of the finest degree teams in northern Wisconsin.

At six o'clock a banquet was served at which over one hundred guests were present.

The business session of the lodge was held in the evening. Addresses were given by Neighbors Parks and Hoyt. Reports were read by several neighbors from visiting camps and the meeting closed with a pleasing musical program.

The visiting officers and neighbors voted the members of Camp 1728 royal entertainers and wished them a successful future.

IN WHOLESALE BUSINESS

Wm. Lord, formerly of this city, has embarked in the wholesale liquor business at North Crandon and will manage a large cold storage house there for the Minneapolis Brewing Company. He has been assigned a large territory for distribution.

GETS THE BIG W

Judge Walker Is Honored By University of Wisconsin

Judge D. H. Walker has been awarded the big W of Wisconsin for his work on the foot ball team of that institution twenty-one years ago. The big W is an honor accorded University athletes for a certain degree of proficiency in athletic contests. As very few men are thus recognized the honor is one which is eagerly sought for.

That the big W should come to Judge Walker after twenty-one years is a source of pleasant surprise to him and he feels justly proud of the certificate. He thinks that it was given to him for the part he took in a football match against Minnesota University which was the hardest game he ever played.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR RHINELANDER

Biramwood Farmers Are Easily Trimmed By Gaston's Warriors

Gaston's Indians added another scalp to their belt Sunday afternoon when they tomahawked the Biramwood farmers. 10 to 4 was the result of the slaughter. The Rhinelander warriors had their paint and feathers on and batted Smith, the visitors' star twirler, from the box. This is the same Smith who two weeks before struck out 16 of the Wittenberg team. Deakin started the massacre for the locals but he had an off day and was relieved at the beginning of the fifth by "Moose" Lally, the south-paw. "Moose" proved very effective, the farmers being unable to get to him for a single hit. The locals, with few exceptions, put up a good game both in the field and at the bat. With more practice and confidence Manager Gaston would be able to put his aggregation against any team in northern Wisconsin. Rhinelander plays Tomahawk, July 4th at Tomahawk.

The tabulated score of Sunday's game is published below:

Biramwood—A.B.	R.	H.	A.	E.

BOXING AT PELICAN

Fighting Dick and Young McArthur Will Go Six Rounds

Fighting Dick Kramer of this city has been matched for six rounds with Young McArthur at Pelican Lake this evening. The boys will weigh in at 140 pounds. This will be the main bout on a card of several events.

Since going to International Falls two months ago Fighting Dick has kept in the game and has had two or three hard tussles with Canadian pugs. He is in the best of condition.

McArthur is reputed to be clever with the gloves and has always made good in the ring.

A delegation of Rhinelander fans are going to Pelican to witness the mix-up and it is expected that a crowd of several hundred from neighboring towns will be at the ringside.

NO CELEBRATION HERE

Plans to Observe July Fourth Are Given Up

There will be no celebration of the nation's birthday in Rhinelander today. The committees named to arrange for an observance of the day were obliged to abandon their plans owing to lack of funds and interest. A second meeting was held at the city hall Thursday night and after the report of the financial committee became known it was decided to have no celebration.

Rhinelander is the only city in this part of the state without some kind of a demonstration and as a result hundreds of citizens are spending the great day elsewhere. Tomahawk, Antigo, and Pelican Lake are attracting the majority of Rhinelander fun lovers today.

IN NEW LOCATION

Jim and Sandy, "the lion and the mouse," are now located in their new place of business on Brown St., opposite the Arlington Hotel. There they can be found as genial and good natured as ever ready to cater to their friends at all times. They will run a good orderly place and guarantee first class service.

VISITING NURSE MONTHLY REPORT

May and June Are Very Healthy
Months in City of Rhinelander

The regular monthly meeting of the Rhinelander Visiting Nurse Ass'n was held Monday July 1. The report of the visiting nurse, Miss N. J. Bing for the month of May, extending from the 1st to the 30th, and for the month of June, is as follows:

Total No. of visits made 225, work 161, investigation and instruction 64, new cases reported to V. N. A. 21, working 15, investigation and instruction 6, No. of full baths given 44, alcohol or oil rubs 102, surgical dressings done 15.

Diagnosis of Cases

Pneumonia 6, tuberculosis 3, tuberculosis suspected 3. 1 each as follows: Paralysis, cancer, sorethroat, dropsy, adenoids, constipation, rusty nail puncture, diphtheria, waiting maternity. Results:

Persons making recovery and dismissed 13, died 3, remaining on list July 1st 6, working cases 5, investigation and instruction 1.

Donations were received during the two months as follows: Bundles of old linen, children's garments, sheets, shoes, hose, towels, face cloths, night gowns.

The names of persons who have contributed the above articles are not mentioned, because I, myself, believe that the true reward of a neighborly act is in having a chance to "lend-a-hand." There is a little book in our office called the "Good Neighbors' List." In this book I keep the names of persons who do these little kindnesses.

In behalf of the Charity League and the happy recipients of the articles mentioned, I wish to thank these good folks whose names are on our Good Neighbors' List.

The months of May and June have been exceedingly healthful months, and very little in the way of personal care has been required of the visiting nurse, but the little that has been required, has been promptly and willingly done.

I wish to remind the physicians of Rhinelander that I am here, and will be glad to have all cases requiring aid from the Charity League, reported to me. I will gladly render any assistance possible, both to the interest of the physician and the welfare of the patient or family in need.

Respectfully submitted,
N. J. BING.

RHINELANDER HAS GRIST MILL

E. S. Shepard Builds Plant to Grind County Grain

Rhinelander has a grist mill, an industry which the city and county has long been in need of. This mill has been erected by E. S. Shepard on his grounds just within the city limits and is daily grinding out Oneida county grain.

Mr. Shepard became tired of hearing so much talk regarding a grist mill being located here and finally took it upon himself to establish a plant of his own. At the present time the mill is being run day times only but he hopes within due course of time to operate a night shift. The capacity of the plant is limited but will be increased as business demands.

Mr. Shepard will be pleased to show all visitors through the mill whenever they desire to call.

IN NEW YORK POSTOFFICE

Thomas O'Connell has resigned his position at the Alpine Hotel and leaves within a week for New York City where he formerly resided. He has been granted a position as clerk in the New York postoffice at a substantial salary. During the brief time in which Thomas has made his home in Rhinelander he has gained a large circle of friends and his departure will be regretted.

FLASHES FROM THE HEADLIGHT

Bits of News Pertaining To The Soo and Northwestern Railroads

While making a coupling at Deerpark, a few days ago, Ed. Maloney, a Northwestern brakeman, was injured. He was taken to the Antigo hospital.

As the season for forest fires is at hand, the officials of the Soo are taking due precaution. By the terms of the Michigan law, all railway companies in the state must keep their right of ways for a distance of fifty feet on each side of the track, clear of all combustible material. Ash pans of all burning material must not be employed along the right of way. If employees discover fire on or near the right of way the nearest railway station must be notified. The law places these requirements between the 15th of April and the first of December in each year. As the railway companies take due precaution to prevent the spread of destructive fires, few fires are expected.

The Gladstone Reporter is now running a column of interesting railroad items in each issue which is appreciated by the boys on the road.

The Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul railway is again running its special fish train from Chicago to the lakes in the vicinity of Minocqua. The train leaves Chicago Friday evening and arrives at the lakes Saturday morning, returning to Chicago Sunday evening. This allows fishermen Saturday and Sunday in which to enjoy the sport.

There is a big demand for sleeping car berths on the Northwestern trains between Chicago and the lake region of this part of the state now days. This is due to the tourist business. Frequently the limited trains carry three and four sleeping cars and Sunday night the south bound train had six sleepers, the largest number carried since the resort season opened.

The Chippewa Falls Herald says that about 75 alleged laborers played a scurry trick on the Soo line a few days ago. They were brought in two car loads from Chicago to work on the line west of Howard. When one carload reached Irvine all but ten jumped off and took to the woods. Of the next car load only five went to work and so the Soo secured but fifteen laborers out of the eighty or ninety that were given free transportation from Chicago.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company will build a sixty-stall roundhouse and machine shop in Green Bay within a short time. The officials of the land department of that road have agreed to options on fifty-six acres of land just north of the city and adjoining its tracks. Close to the depot. The company has been forced to leave many of its engines out of doors during the winter at considerable expense, and by building the new roundhouse, will be able to take care of 120 engines a day. It is not known how big the machine shops will be. It is believed that 500 families will go to Green Bay to live when the shops are completed.

ROBBERY AT HEAFFORD

Two Tramps Under Arrest For Stealing Money and Passes

Two tramps, Ole Larson and Ernest Edlund, were arrested at Bradley Friday on the charges of stealing twenty dollars in money and several railroad passes from H. Pederson a Soo line civil engineer. The theft was committed at a Heafford Junction Hotel and the goods were taken from a coat which hung in Pederson's room. He was asleep at the time.

Larson and Edlund were suspected of the crime when they appeared at the Bradley and offered a twenty dollar bill in payment for a round of drinks. They were immediately arrested and taken to Tomahawk where they were bound over for trial before Lincoln county circuit court. Their bonds were fixed at $500 each.

HOG CHOLERA SERUM

Serum for the prevention of hog cholera which has been in course of manufacture for the past few weeks, is now ready for distribution by the Veterinary Department of the University of Wisconsin.

The serum treatment is recognized as the only reliable means by which hog cholera may be controlled. Owners of hogs, especially in those districts where the disease was prevalent last summer and fall, should lose no time in vaccinating their herds.

Some hogs are much more susceptible to cholera than others. Unfortunately, there is no way by which this condition can be determined until cholera makes its appearance. Accordingly, to insure against losses, it is advisable to vaccinate all hogs before an outbreak occurs.

The university authorities stand ready to render every assistance possible, and have made arrangements for a specially trained field man to aid the farmers of the state in controlling hog cholera outbreaks. Serum will be furnished at the very reasonable price of 1 1/2 cents per cubic centimeter, which amounts to about 35 cents for a 50 pound pig.

GALLOWAY CATTLE

Although particularly adapted to wide range conditions the Galloway breed of cattle has its coterie of admirers among the stockmen of Wisconsin. There are, at present, according to an enumeration lately made for Andrew W. Hopkins, secretary of the Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders' Association, between 30 and 40 herds of "shaggy backs" in the state. Noted authorities have declared this to be about the hardiest of all the beef breeds and as grazers they rank equally high which characteristics undoubtedly account for their popularity in certain Badger state centers.

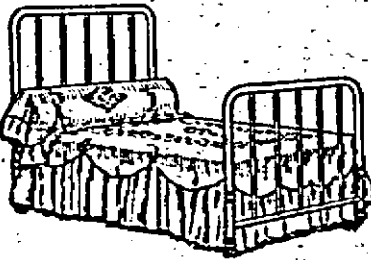

FOR EAGLES' CONVENTION

State Meet Could Be Easily Secured For Rhinelander

There is very little doubt but what if the Eagles of Rhinelander ever wanted a state convention of the order here it could be secured with small effort. Rhinelander Aerie has never yet attempted to get the convention due to lack of interest. At the next state gathering of the order will be held at Manitowoc in 1913 and as the 1914 convention will perhaps go to Antigo it would be well for the birds of this city to get busy toward capturing the convention of 1915 for this city. Now is the time to formulate plans toward this end. The Aerie should be well represented at the Manitowoc meeting and every possible boost made for Rhinelander.

Among the leading Red Polled cattle states, Wisconsin ranks third, Iowa and Nebraska only supplying more admirers of this noted dual purpose breed. One of the first and most noted herds of Red Polled to be established in Wisconsin was that owned by University Regent, James W. Martin of Richland County. His son, Harley A. Martin, of Gotham, is at present secretary of the Red Polled Cattle Club of America.

CLERKS AND BARBERS AGAIN
The Clerks don't relish the sarcastic manner in which the Barbers replied to their challenge for a base ball game. They claim that the Barbers also have been playing outsiders on their team and that it is far from being composed of quill huckers only. The Clerks have always considered the Barbers a one man team as they agree that a certain outsider in the line-up is the only real player in the bunch. With this man out of the game the hair clippers would be perfectly at sea, so say the counter hoppers. Be this as it may the sporting editor of this family journal thinks it high time that the two teams either fight it out on the diamond or shake hands and call all bets off.

Items Of More Or Less Importance Boiled Down From Neighboring Exchanges

Grandon—
This city is to have a creamery. Stock to the amount of $1,125 has already been subscribed toward the project. Most of the subscribers are farmers. The plant will cost in the neighborhood of $3000 and there will be no difficulty experienced in securing this amount.

Articles of incorporation for the new Gladstone State Savings Bank have been duly approved by the Michigan commissioner of banking. The directors will take their oath of office as soon as a bank examiner arrives. The bank will be capitalized at $20,000 and with the reliable list of stockholders behind it, it will be one of the strongest banks in the state of Michigan.

Ironwood—
The body of Nicholas Berulla was found in the woods near this city, Thursday. Berulla disappeared from this city about one year ago and it is believed that his mind became unsound and he was lost in the woods or committed suicide.

Florence—
While bathing in the Menominee river Roy Nancarrow, a popular young man of this city, was drowned. The accident occurred in a deep hole of water and Nancarrow being a poor swimmer was unable to reach a place of safety. Another boy named Baird came near meeting a similar fate and was going under for second time when he was rescued.

Clintonville—
At a meeting of the Advancement Association it was decided to make the Home Coming and Silver Jubilee celebration one of the grandest events in the history of this city. A number of big attractions have been secured for the occasion and it is believed that Clintonville will be crowded with visitors on that day.

Ladysmith—
The three-line, pea-canning factory being erected in this city by the North Wisconsin Canning Co., is completed, the machinery is in and is rapidly being placed in position and lined up. Rapid progress is being made with the steam-fitting. It is expected that the plant will be ready to run in less than two weeks. About the 10th of July the factory will be started up, experimentally, and the machinery will be run to ascertain if there are any defects to be remedied before it starts turning out canned peas at the rate of probably 40, or 50,000 cans a day. The plant has a capacity of 120,000 cans, daily.

Antigo—
The new ball park in this city has been opened. Mayor Hill made the opening address and threw the first ball over the plate. It is one of the finest base ball parks in the state. The grand stand will seat 500 people.

Wausau—
John Schwister of this city, while experimenting with his new flying machine at Fort Snelling, Minn., was severely injured when his airship dove 200 feet to the ground. Schwister was 300 feet in the air when his engine stopped and he was unable to right the machine for a successful voyage. His left forearm was fractured and several ribs were broken, but no internal injuries were sustained. Schwister is Wisconsin's premier bird man.

Antigo—
After completing a walk of 1900 miles for a wager, Ed. Chamness arrived in Antigo Saturday afternoon from Kansas City from which place he started on January 10th. Chamness was 300 feet in the air when his engine stopped and he was unable to right the machine for a successful voyage. His left forearm was fractured and several ribs were broken, but no internal injuries were sustained. Schwister is Wisconsin's premier bird man.

Marathon City—
Fire, which started in the plant of the Marathon Brewing Co., destroyed all of the old part of the plant, and damaged the new to a considerable extent. The loss is estimated will reach between $15,000 and $20,000. Besides there will be a large additional loss, due to loss of time. The storage house, brew house, boiler and engine room were all under one roof and these were all destroyed. The refrigerating plant was also considerably damaged.

Stevens Point—
Dr. W. H. Wilson, in his capacity as chairman of the committee on entertainment of the Business Men's association, has received a letter from the chairman of the Merrill business men's organization which is of interest to the people of Stevens Point. Merrill is anxious to have the Soo line build into that city, and has started a move to unite all of the business interests on this part of the Wisconsin river in that behalf. The plan is to have the Soo line extended from Stevens Point to Merrill, and as a starter in the movement a meeting will be held in this city in the near future. The Merrill organization has appointed a committee of three to come here and confer with our people, and an invitation has been extended to Wausau to do the same.

Mosinee—
The Mosinee Land Log & Timber Co. cut a hemlock tree at one of their camps near Moon last week that yielded over a cord of bark and will cut better than three thousand feet of timber. For a tree the size of this one, it was unusually sound, and free from shaky timber. The big trees are not all a thing of the past hereabouts.

ARREST BANK CASHIER

Matt Fitzsimmons Of Ironwood Charged With Embezzlement

Matt Fitzsimmons, cashier of the defunct Bank of Ironwood, was placed under arrest Tuesday evening by Sheriff Rowett, acting under instructions from Prosecuting Attorney O. Neil. Bail was fixed at $10,000 for his appearance in Judge Shae's court on Tuesday, July 2nd, for a preliminary hearing. Bail was furnished by Jos. Davis, Geo. Curry and F. J. Hager. The charge against Mr. Fitzsimmons is embezzlement and there are twenty counts in the charges against him and Mr. O'Neil expects to be able to hold him for trial on a number of the counts. Mr. Fitzsimmons is charged with "embezzling and converting to his own use funds and moneys belonging to Fritz Karste, a private person," and the charges are based on the report of the special auditing committee which went over the affairs and books of the bank, a copy of which was submitted to the prosecuting attorney Monday.
The amount of money claimed to have been embezzled by Cashier Fitzsimmons has not been divulged by Mr. O'Neil, but from rumors heard in Ironwood the past few days it is stated that the failure will be as bad if not worse than that of the old First National of three years ago.—Hurley Miner.

CALL MELORE A FAKE

The people of Crandon did not think much of the show given by Melrose, the hypnotist. Here is what the Republican of that city said of the company:
"A company of hamfatters who were advertising a performance to take place at the Woodman hall on Wednesday night by 'hypnotizing' one of their number and having him ride a bicycle, were brought up standing by a local physician who complained to the city authorities. The hypnotic fake is so thin that few towns allow such fakes at present."

WHERE THE BEST STORIES GO

The fiction writer is having his in- lining these days. Good stories are commanding prices that range from $75 to $750 apiece, according to the fame of the author, while the demand grows keener every year. It is an extremely expensive thing to publish a high class magazine nowadays, filled with the work of the most famous authors and artists. Yet it is exactly such a magazine that The Chicago Record-Herald furnishes as a regular part of its Sunday issue.

The Sunday Magazine of The Record-Herald is a real magazine, beautifully illustrated by the foremost artists of the day and filled with the best stories, articles and serials that money can buy. By a clever stroke of enterprise last year it secured a steady stream of the finest short stories appearing in print. We refer to its $10,000 prize contest.

This unique contest brought to the Sunday Magazine of The Record-Herald scores of the choicest stories from such writers as Conan Doyle, Jack London, Rex Beach, Roy Norton, Amelia Rives, Lloyd Osborne, Wallace Irwin, Owen Johnson, Jacques Futrelle, Cyrus Townsend Brady, Richard Le Gallienne, Molly Elliott Seawell, Ellis Parker Butler—and so on through a long list of noted names. Many of these authors continue to be contributors. The result has been to raise the Sunday Magazine of The Record-Herald to the top rank as regards short stories and serial novels.

By all odds the best literary treat offered to newspaper readers today is the Sunday Magazine of The Record-Herald.

SUGAR CAMP CELEBRATION

BE CAREFUL IN WATER

Nearly every exchange which comes to the New North these days has accounts of drowning accidents. In view of this fact, it is well for Rhinelander people who visit the neighboring lakes and streams on outings to use every precaution when in the water. If in a boat move about as little as possible and do not stand up. Never over crowd a boat or venture out in a craft which leaks. When bathing do not get too far from shore and keep away from a swift current. If you can't swim it is well to keep out of the water unless using a life protector.

If the water is cold don't risk bathing as cramps are easily contracted and many people are drowned in this manner. A little advice of this kind doesn't cost anything and if followed goes a long way toward preventing accidents.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED

We believe in republican principles and shall continue to be republican but we do not feel it our duty to further the cause of men who are not the choice of the electors of the party but are chosen by political gangsters and corruptionists.

The LaFollette progressive platform was rejected at the Chicago convention by the "old guard" with great dignity. LaFollette says:

They did it—many of the wisest ones—with the solemnity of the politician who feels that he is deliberately committing political suicide. It was the last stand of the powers of patronage and privilege within the republican party. The progressive platform they laid away embodies the new declaration of independence of a shocked and aroused people. The new day of political justice and true representation is fast dawning.

PROGRESSIVE NOMINATION

"I shall of course continue to stand for the progressive nomination," said Col. Roosevelt tonight, after he heard of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson. The former president stated his belief that events in the Democratic as well as the Republican convention demonstrated the need of a new party. The national convention of the new party will be held in Chicago. It was decided today, probably during the first week of August. "Before I left Chicago, and again at Oyster Bay, when Controller Prendergast of New York came to see me," Col. Roosevelt said, "I stated that the third party movement and my candidacy would not be in any way affected by the outcome at Baltimore. I never go into a fight on a contingent basis. I shall continue to stand for the progressive nomination."

THEIR WATERLOO

A progressive republican said to a New North representative, "If the republican convention had had a William Jennings Bryan in attendance as a delegate, perhaps the party would not be loaded down with a most unpopular reactionary as a candidate for president and even more unpopular and more reactionary candidate for vice president and a reactionary-straddle platform to run upon." It is too bad that some one could not have been present to stop the evil work of such corruptionists as William Barnes Jr., Boise Penrose and Victor Rosewater, men repudiated in their own states. If the republicans are repudiated at the polls, they will not have to look far to see where the Waterloo came.

LA FOLLETTE FLAYS T. R.

In last week's LaFollette, Senator LaFollette attacks Ex-President Roosevelt as a hindrance and a stumbling block to the progressive cause. He says:

Upon Theodore Roosevelt and his followers rests the responsibility of having divided the progressives in their first national contest. Stimulated by an overmastering desire to win, they denounced loyalty to conviction and principle as stubborn selfishness. In the Convention they put forward no platform, no issues. They made no fight against the reactionary platform adopted. They substituted vulgar personalities and the coarse epithets of the prize ring for the serious discussion of great economic problems, and for the time being brought ridicule and contempt upon a great cause.

But the progressive movement does not consist of a few self-constituted leaders. It consists of millions of thoughtful citizens drawn together by a common belief in certain principles. They will permit no combination of special interests and political expediency to secure control of the progressive cause which is ultimately to redeem democracy and restore government to the people.

WILSON THE CHOICE

The democratic convention at Baltimore which lasted eight days was one round of excitement. From first to last, except during the tedious process of taking those forty-six ballots William Jennings Bryan, thrice defeated candidate on the democratic ticket for president furnished the pyrotechnics for the convention, although the reactionaries pronounced him as dead before the convention met. It was due to his tactics that the reactionaries were unable to control the gathering. He asked for the removal of delegates of Belmont Ryan and other plutocrats that well as in the lives of men and the people should get their right view of the political waves of the past century which seems to reach its flood each twenty years. 1912 saw the death of the Federalist party and the birth of the Democratic party.

1812 Collapse of the National Republican party and the Whigs came into being. 1852 Death of Whigs and birth of the Republican party. 1872 Liberal Republican bolt paved the way for the Tilden campaign and its attendant results. 1892 Populists bolted the Republican ticket.—Cleveland elected. 1912 Progressives bolted both the Republican and Democratic parties and A NEW PARTY is to be formed. —Exchange.

CHANGE EVERY TWENTY YEARS

The fear that the great commoner might be nominated was what drove the Illinois and New York delegates to Wilson at the last. The hatred of the "Commoner" by Sullivan of Illinois and Murphy of New York and then fear that he might be nominated drove them into the Wilson bandwagon, but after the nomination was made there was much rejoicing in all camps and a general feeling that with Governor Wilson as democratic standard bearer the democrats have a most excellent chance to win in November. Wilson is a progressive, the democratic platform is thoroughly progressive and indications are that a large per cent of the voters of the country is thoroughly progressive. There seems to be much rejoicing all over the country that the democrats have a progressive platform. With the result of the Baltimore convention before the voters there seems little excuse for a Roosevelt third party move unless the third party is to be simply a Roosevelt appendage. We shall watch with interest what the Roosevelt movement is to develop now.

NOMINATE WILSON

At one of the most dramatic national conventions ever held in this country, Governor Woodrow Wilson was nominated as democratic candidate for president, Tuesday afternoon at Baltimore on the forty-sixth ballot by a vote of 990 delegates out of a total of 1093 cast. Clark received 84 and Harrison 12, not voting 2.

This final triumph came after seven days of anxiety and wrangling. It is said that this vote was taken amidst scenes of dramatic intensity, which have never been exceeded in any convention ever held in the United States.

All the delegates of Wisconsin feel that Wilson has better than an even chance to carry the electoral vote of the Badger state and say that from a Wisconsin point of view he is the strongest man the democrats could nominate. This is admitted by those members of the delegation who preferred Champ Clark to the New Jersey governor.

Joseph E. Davies, Wisconsin's member of the national committee, said Tuesday night that Wilson would have a walkaway in Wisconsin. "He will split the LaFollette vote in two," said Mr. Davies, "and will carry with him all the other candidates on the democratic ticket."

Frank E. Schurz, state chairman, was equally sanguine. "With a progressive candidate running on a progressive platform we will sweep Wisconsin," he said. "The LaFollette republicans will never vote for Taft. If we had nominated a reactionary man the LaFollette republicans would not vote at all this year. With Wilson as the candidate they will rally to the democratic party and our plurality in the state will not be less than 25,000 and it may go as high as 50,000."

These views express the feelings of the other members of the Badger contingent.

At a session of the convention Tuesday evening, Governor Marshall of Indiana, was chosen as Mr. Wilson's running mate so the democratic presidential ticket for 1912 is Wilson for President, Marshall for Vice President.

BY T. W. BRAHANY

The solid Wisconsin delegation reached the Wilson bandwagon two ballots in advance of the grand rush. As a result there is no happier contingent in Baltimore than the Badgers. They feel that they contributed their full share toward the success of the New Jersey governor, and they expect to be remembered when the plums are passed around after March 4.

R. B. Kirkland of Jefferson, chairman of the delegation, sent a telegram of congratulations to Gov. Wilson in which he assured him of Wisconsin's vote in the electoral college. Other members of the Badger delegation sent similar messages of cheer to the New Jersey governor.

As a matter of fact the Wisconsin men have reason to be elated, for most of them stood as a stone wall for Wilson on every ballot. They refused to listen to any talk of compromise and expressed a determination to "stand by Wilson" as long as his name was before the convention.

Nineteen From Beginning

On every one of the forty-six ballots Wilson had at least nineteen votes from Wisconsin.

Although Wm. J. Bryan was insulted by the Clark delegation during the trying hours of the democratic convention he seemed to be the hero of the occasion and at the close was asked to speak and his utterances were received with great enthusiasm. He spoke as follows: "Members of the convention: You have been so generous with me in the allowance of the time that I had not expected to transgress upon your patience again, but the compliment that has been paid me by the gentlemen from the District of Columbia justifies, I hope, a word in the form of a valedictory. "For sixteen years I have been a fighting man, performing what I regarded as a public duty. I have not hesitated to speak out on every public question that was before the people of the nation for settlement and I have not hesitated to arouse the hostility or enmity of individuals. "There is not one single human being for whom I feel hatred. "Tonight I come to surrender into the hands of one chosen by the representatives of this convention the standard I carried in three campaigns and I challenge my enemies to say that it had ever been lowered in the face of the enemy."

Must Be So. "Sadie," said a mother to her small daughter, "why is it that you and your little brother are always quarreling?" "I don't know," replied Sadie, "unless I take after you and he takes after papa."

Genuine Maple Sugar Scarce. There are few people outside the maple sugar making districts, says a writer in the Country Gentleman, who really know what the genuine article tastes like. The superior flavor thus spoken of is probably due in a degree to the same causes that make strawberries eaten off the vine and cherries consumed on the tree so delectable. The writer quoted, however, puts some of the blame for the poor flavor of commercial maple sugar on the "wily who" sale dealer and mixer.

May 1 a Holiday. A Milwaukee school teacher asked her class of small boys and girls to prepare lists of all the legal holidays that they knew of, and to put them in the order of their importance. Christmas and Fourth of July stood about equal in the number of first places accorded them, and upon but one paper in the lot appeared "Moving day, May 1," as the most important of American legal holidays.
